Sample Municipal Solid Waste (MSW) PPP Agreements

Full Description

Public private partnerships in municipal solid waste require various agreements, or contracts, to outline the relationships and responsibilities between various stakeholders. The agreements below are specific to the solid waste sector. For a general description of the range of public-private partnership forms, please see the Agreements section.