

PPP Day 19 November 2013 - Law Justice and Development Week 2013

Full Description

Session 1: PPP with Small Private Operators: Regulating the Public Service by Local Authorities

Whilst the involvement of local authorities and local operators is key to the development of essential services, Small Private Operators tend to be excluded from the usual PPP market. This session, involving partners from developing countries, members of the French Conseil d'Etat and development institutions focused on the distribution of practical knowledge in this context, aiming at achieving effective inclusion of Small Private Operators.

- Mailys Lange, Conseil d'Etat, France

Session 2: Updating the UNCITRAL PFIPs Legislative Guide and Recommendations: Towards a Model Law on PPPs?

Session led by UNCITRAL

Given that the UNCITRAL PFIPs Legislative Guide had been issued some years ago and new (legislative) approaches to and types of PPP have been developed in the meantime, this session – with participation of experts from international organizations, the private sector and government officials – discussed the key features of the UNCITRAL Legislative Guide and recommendations/provisions on PFIP as well as whether the development of a generic Model Law on PPPs would be desirable.

Panelists:

- Michel Nussbaumer, Chief Counsel, European Bank for Reconstruction and Development
- Michael Fruhmann, Head of Unit in the Federal Chancellery, Republic of Austria
- Bernard Male Nyembo, Consultant in Banking, Infrastructure, Energy, and Food Security

- Caroline Nicholas, Senior Legal Officer, United Nations Commission for International Trade Law

Session 3 : The Use of Dispute Boards in PPP Transactions

PPPs being complex projects, in addition to the conventional construction and operational commercial and political disputes that arise, there is often an asymmetry of capacity and knowledge between the public and private parties, which can give rise to conflicts. In response to this challenge, the use of Dispute Boards is considered. This session brought together international experts in dispute boards – and representatives from the World Bank Group – to share their experiences and shed light on how Dispute Boards can make PPP projects more sustainable. Guest speakers included Dr Cyril Chern, Giovanni Difolco and Kurt Dettman, all world renowned experts in this area.
