Sub-national & Municipal PPPs

www.worldbank.org/pppirc

Many important infrastructure projects are procured at the municipal level, such as street lighting, solar roof top projects, parking, markets, and bus shelters. However, increasing demand for urban infrastructure and a lack of funding means that sub-sovereigns must be more creative when it comes to financing such infrastructure. The PPPIRC has recently launched a section devoted to subnational and municipal infrastructure, with sample laws, contracts, and case studies, across several subsectors and regions
