compensation from the Government to ensure that the Supplier is in no better or worse financial position than it was prior to introduction of such Relevant Change in Law.

Failing agreement between the Parties, either Party may by giving notice to the other Party require that the matter (including any dispute as to whether a Relevant Change in Law has occurred) be referred to an Expert for determination in accordance with Article 9;

(iii) to the extent the Government agrees to pay the amount claimed by the Supplier in its notice pursuant to paragraph (b)(ii), the amount shall be payable within sixty (60) days from the date of receipt of such notice by the Government or such other period as the Parties may agree in writing. If the amount is not paid within that sixty (60) day period, the Government shall be liable to pay the amount claimed with interest at the Default Rate from the due date of payment until the actual date of payment, both days inclusive;

(c) In order to claim compensation for an increase in costs or a reduction in revenues suffered by the Supplier in a Financial Year as a result of a Relevant Change in Law[, other than in respect of a Statutory Modification]:

(i) the Supplier shall send a notice to the Government regarding such event and its estimate of the compensation necessary to ensure that the Supplier is in no better or worse financial position as a consequence of the Relevant Change in Law;
(ii) the Parties shall attempt to agree to the amount payable to the Supplier; and

(iii) if within ninety (90) days of submission of such notice, the Parties are unable to reach agreement on the amount of compensation payable, either Party may refer the matter (including any dispute as to whether a Relevant Change in Law has occurred) to an Expert for determination in accordance with Article 9.

(d) For the avoidance of doubt, the Supplier shall be entitled to be compensated for the effects of a Relevant Change in Law in full and not only for the amount in excess of the Threshold amount.

(ii) changes the basis of calculation of tax prevailing at the date of this Agreement, as modified by the basis specified in paragraph 1(b) of Schedule 3, Part 2, in relation to SPV Taxable Items which would result in a decrease of deductions, rebates or other allowances available to SPV in computing its liability to taxes specified in Schedule 3, Part 2 in relation to SPV Taxable Items;

(iii) otherwise amends the corporate taxation regimes applicable to SPV from those prevailing at the date of this Agreement, in a manner which would result in an increase in taxes specified Schedule 3, Part 2 payable by SPV in relation to SPV Taxable Items;

The Supplier undertakes not to make material changes to the terms and conditions of employment of any of its employees existing as at the date of this Agreement, except with the prior consent of the relevant employees, unless otherwise permitted by the terms of their appointment.

5. Force Majeure

5.1 Events of Force Majeure

For the purpose of this Agreement, an “Event of Force Majeure” means any circumstance not within the reasonable control of the Party affected, but only if and to the extent that (i) such circumstance, despite the exercise of reasonable diligence and in the case of the Supplier observing Good Utility Practice, cannot be, or be caused to be, prevented, avoided or removed by such Party, and (ii) such circumstance materially and adversely affects the ability of the Party to perform its obligations under this Agreement, and such Party has taken all reasonable precautions, due care and reasonable alternative measures in order to avoid the effect of such event on the Party’s ability to perform its obligations under this Agreement and to mitigate the consequences thereof.

5.2 Instances of Force Majeure

5.2.1 Subject to the provisions of clause 5.1, Events of Force Majeure shall include, but not be limited to:

(a) Natural Force Majeure Events

(i) fire, chemical or radioactive contamination or ionising radiation, earthquakes, lightning, cyclones, hurricanes, floods, droughts or such other extreme weather or environmental conditions, unanticipated geological or ground conditions, epidemic, famine, plague, other natural calamities and acts of God;

(v) in relation to the Supplier, non-performance by a counter-party to a contract by reason of an event or circumstance that would constitute a Natural Force Majeure Event under this Agreement;

above in this paragraph (b), as applied to the counterparty,

provided that breakdown of plant or equipment (unless itself caused by an Event of Force Majeure), or unavailability of funds, shall not constitute an Event of Force Majeure.

5.3 Consequences of Force Majeure

5.3.1 Except as provided in clause 5.4, and subject to compliance with clause 5.5, either Party shall be excused from performance and shall not be in default in respect of any obligation hereunder to the extent that the failure to perform such obligation is due to a Natural Force Majeure Event.

5.3.2 Additionally, the Supplier (but not the Government) shall be excused from performance and shall not be in default in respect of any obligation under this Agreement to the extent that the failure to perform such obligation is due to a Political Force Majeure Event.

5.4 Payment Obligations not excused

Notwithstanding that an Event of Force Majeure exists, the provisions of this Article 5 shall not excuse any obligation of the Government to pay monies under this Agreement.

5.5 Notice of Force Majeure

5.5.1 If a Party wishes to claim protection in respect of an Event of Force Majeure, it shall, subject to clauses 5.3 and 5.4, as soon as possible after

5.6 Uneconomic Reinstatement

If an Event of Force Majeure occurs that causes damage which renders the affected Facility a total loss such that following reinstatement of the affected Facility, the Supplier’s earnings would not be sufficient to cover its costs of reinstating and operating the affected Facility, taking into account available insurance proceeds ("Uneconomic Force Majeure"), then the Supplier shall not be obligated to rebuild or reinstate the affected Facility, unless and until the Parties have agreed upon the terms for such reinstatement. Any dispute as to whether an Uneconomic Force Majeure has occurred may be referred by either Party for determination by the Expert.

6. Indemnities

6.1 The Supplier Indemnity

6.1.1 the Supplier shall be responsible for all third party claims for injury to or loss or damage to the property of any person (including without limitation reasonable legal fees) ("the Supplier Third Party Claims") arising out of ownership and maintenance of the Facilities and resulting from any act or omission of the Supplier at any time after the Effective Date.

6.1.2 the Supplier shall fully indemnify and hold the Government, its officers, employees, contractors and agents harmless in respect of the Supplier Third Party Claims, provided that the Government has not been compensated for the Supplier Third Party Claim in question under an insurance policy and, provided further, that the indemnity shall not extend to and the Government hereby waives any claim against the Supplier in respect of the Supplier Third Party Claim to the extent it was caused by any act or omission of the Government, its officers, employees, contractors or agents.

6.2 Government Indemnity

6.2.1 The Government shall be responsible for any third party claim for injury to or loss or damage to property of any person (including reasonable legal fees) arising out of:

(each referred to as a “Government Third Party Claim”).

6.2.2 The Government shall fully indemnify and hold the Supplier, its Affiliates, officers, employees, contractors and agents harmless in respect of Government Third Party Claims provided that the Supplier has not been compensated for the Government Third Party Claim in question under an insurance policy and, provided further, that, save for the claims referred to in paragraph (a) of clause 6.2.1, the indemnity shall not extend to and the Supplier hereby waives any claim against the Government in respect of Government Third Party Claims, to the extent it was caused by any negligent act or omission of the Supplier, its Affiliates, officers, employees, contractors or agents.

6.3 Right to Defend Action

The indemnifying Party shall have the right, but not the duty, to assume the defence of any third party claim referred to in clauses 6.1 or 6.2, as the case may be. Any Party shall, as soon as practicable after receiving notice of any claim brought against it, deliver to the other indemnifying Party full particulars thereof and shall render all reasonable assistance requested by such Party in the defence of such third party claim. The foregoing obligations, indemnities and liabilities assumed by the Parties hereunder shall not be affected by any limits on insurance held by the Parties.

6.4 Indemnified Party not to Compromise

For the purposes of this Article 9, in a Dispute involving both the Supplier and SPV, they shall be regarded as a single Party.

9.2 If a Dispute is not resolved within twenty (20) Business Days after notice under clause 9.1 by mutual discussion and such Dispute is required by this Agreement to be referred to an Expert, any Party (including the SPV) may by notice to the other Party (including the SPV) require the Dispute to be referred to an Expert in accordance with the procedure specified in clause 9.3.

9.3 The parties to a Dispute shall jointly appoint an Expert within twenty (20) Business Days, or such longer period as may be agreed by the parties to the Dispute, after the date of receipt of the notice by the addressee of notice under clause 9.2. If the parties to the Dispute fail to agree on an appointee, either party to the Dispute may apply to the International Chamber of Commerce Centre for Expertise to appoint an Expert requesting that the appointment be made within twenty (20) Business Days after the date of receipt of the application. The following procedure shall apply to determination of a Dispute by an Expert and the Parties shall procure that it is reflected in the Expert’s terms of reference:

(c) determine the amount of his fees and the responsibilities of the parties to the Dispute for such fees and expenses; and

(d) give copies of his decision and the reasons therefore in writing to each of the parties to the Dispute.

9.3.2 The parties to the Dispute shall promptly provide the Expert and each other with all such evidence and information within their respective possession or control as the Expert may consider necessary for determining the Dispute or which is relevant to and bears upon the Dispute.

Failure by a party to the Dispute to so act shall constitute a breach of the Agreement. Any Dispute concerning the Expert’s determination may be submitted to arbitration in accordance with clause 9.4. The Tribunal shall be bound by the determination of the Expert and the only issue for the Tribunal to determine shall be whether the parties to the Dispute have complied with the determination of the Expert.

9.3.6 In the event that the Expert becomes unwilling or unable to act in relation to the Dispute or (being a firm or partnership) is discontinued or (being a company) goes into liquidation, other than for the purpose of a scheme of reconstruction or amalgamation, or commences carrying on its business under an administrator, receiver, manager or liquidator for the benefit of its creditors, then the parties to the Dispute shall agree on substitute Expert. The substitute shall be selected in accordance with the procedure specified in this clause 9.3.

9.4 If a Dispute cannot be settled within twenty (20) Business Days by discussion after notice under clause 9.1, and is not required to be referred by this Agreement to an Expert, the Dispute shall be finally settled by an arbitral tribunal (the “Tribunal”) under UNCITRAL Rules for International Arbitration as in force at the time such arbitration is commenced (the “UNCITRAL Rules”).
